NOBU STYLE

Celebrating your wedding at Nobu Hotel London Portman Square means your guests will enjoy our world-class dining on your special day.

Chef Nobu Matsuhisa has evolved his brand over the past 30 years to become a global success, with his flavours of Japanese and Peruvian cuisine known throughout the world.

Upon booking your wedding, our wedding coordinator and Executive Head Chef will work alongside you to create a menu that represents your requirements. Included in your package, enjoy a complimentary wine and food tasting to help finalise your selection.

From world-renowned Sushi to our famous Black Miso Cod, there will be something for all of your guests to enjoy.

If you have little ones attending your big day, we can also work with you to provide some more child friendly options.

We can also cater to certain special requests as well as dietary requirements for your guests.

ROMANCE WITH US

On your special day, savour every beautiful moment and leave the work to us. A dedicated wedding planner will be at your service to provide guidance, whether we're hosting your ceremony or just the reception.

Our mezzanine, serving as our reception area, is an open space filled with beautiful natural daylight, creating a welcoming and vibrant atmosphere. Guests can enjoy live music, whether it's a singer or an orchestra, during the post-ceremony drinks.

Our grand Nobu Ballroom has been designed to provide a stylish and versatile space, making it ideal for large gatherings, and the perfect canvas to make your visions into reality. Our Ballroom is licensed for civil ceremonies and can seamlessly transition to host your wedding breakfast and evening reception. Our state-of-the-art LED screen enhances the guest experience with vibrant, high-resolution visuals. Perfect for speeches, images and special effects, the screen adds a dynamic and modern touch.

Accommodating up to 200 guests for your special day.

If your wedding day is more intimate - accommodating 20 to 30 guests, we can offer our Sayuri Room. For larger gatherings, our Ballroom can host standing receptions for up to 700 guests.

Please speak to our Wedding specialist for further details.

Your wedding day will include access to the private Portman Square Gardens, which provides the perfect backdrop for your day.

SAKURA

On the big day, our Sakura Room is included in your package for you to use for you and the bridal party to get ready in.

The room boasts natural lighting, floor to ceiling mirrors and can be split into two spaces. This offers a spacious option for the bride and bridal party to get ready and have their hair and make-up done.

We can also provide additional mirrors as well as a make-up and hair high chair.

Ahead of the big day, you can select a range of food and beverages to be available in the room for you and your guests, from tea, coffees and pastries to a glass of crisp Champagne - whatever your preference.

BEDROOMS

The accommodation at Nobu Hotel London Portman Square ranges from palatial suites, with spacious living areas and views over the London skyline, to contemporary yet cosy rooms, perfect for an overnight stay in the city. Each bedroom takes its conceptual cues from the traditional English garden within the adjacent Portman Square, drawing on the natural materials, textures and tranquillity of this urban oasis.

The luxury of booking your wedding at Nobu Hotel London Portman Square is that you can stay on site. The Bride and Groom will enjoy their wedding night in one of our Deluxe Bedrooms or Nobu Suites included within the price of their chosen wedding package.

We would also love to welcome your family and friends to stay with us and can offer a preferential rate for the night of the wedding.

‘Although I put her through a lot of hardship, she always supported me without complaint. When we talk about those difficulties now, it’s clear that she believed I would overcome them all. It’s thanks to her, too, that I was able to keep doing my best.’
